

Bus Number 63

I do not remember the look of the rock, but the thing inside me that kinda thrills, tingles, over what is just a rock that I kicked home down a dirt road. Sometimes it gets ditched, sometimes it makes it all the way home.

Six years riding bus number 63, waiting in the mornings early at the old country store on the old Chapel Hill Road.

Like the way you touch your face.
